

David Walsh

David Walsh has been working with the National Occupational Health and Safety Section since 2014 and recently took on the role of Assistant Director in March 2018. David has an undergraduate degree in Business Administration (Memorial University) and is a graduate of the CRA Management Trainee Program. He started his career with the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) in 2006 as a Taxpayer Service Agent for the Newfoundland and Labrador Tax Services Office, and joined the Human Resources Branch (HRB) in 2010.